Edgar Anaya of Haynes and Boone, LLP
Named to International Fiscal Association Post

MEXICO CITY – Haynes and Boone Mexico City attorney Edgar M. Anaya has been elected secretary of the General Counsel to the Mexican branch of the International Fiscal Association (IFA) for 2007 and 2008.

It is Mr. Anaya's second consecutive election to the post. He has also been named reporter for Mexican tax issues to be discussed at the 2008 IFA General Congress in Brussels.

Formed in 1938, the International Fiscal Association (IFA) is a leading non-governmental, international organization dealing with tax matters. Headquartered in Rotterdam, the IFA is comprised of company tax personnel, tax advisers, university professors and government officials. The association provides a unique forum for discussing international tax questions. It now has about 10,000 members worldwide in more than 90 countries, of which 45 have national branches.

The IFA was created to study and advance international and comparative law regarding public finance and, specifically, international and comparative fiscal law and the financial and economic aspects of taxation.

Haynes and Boone, LLP is an international corporate law firm with offices in Texas, Mexico City, Moscow, New York and Washington, D.C., providing a full spectrum of legal services. With more than 450 attorneys, Haynes and Boone is ranked among the largest law firms in the nation by The National Law Journal. The firm has been recognized by Vault.com as one of the "20 Best Law Firms to Work For," by Corporate Board Member Magazine as one of the "Best Corporate Law Firms in America," and has received the Minority Corporate Counsel Association's Thomas L. Sager Award for its commitment to diversity.
