

For Immediate Release
Contact: Vivian Hood, 904.220.1915

Baker Donelson Announces New Shareholder in Washington, D.C.

(Washington, D.C./January 29, 2007) Baker, Donelson, Bearman, Caldwell & Berkowitz, PC is pleased to announce that Bradley S. Clanton has been named a new shareholder in its Washington, D.C. office.

Mr. Clanton, who practices from the Firm's Washington, D.C. and Jackson, Mississippi offices, concentrates his practice in government litigation, securities and other fraud investigations, and litigation, election law and appeals. His appellate practice has included matters before the U.S. Supreme Court, U.S. Courts of Appeals, the Mississippi Supreme Court and Court of Appeals, and various other state appellate courts. His internal investigations and government litigation practice has included matters related to Securities and Exchange Commission investigations, health care fraud investigations, federal campaign finance investigations, and state and federal securities fraud class action litigation and arbitration proceedings. Previously, Mr. Clanton served as Chief Counsel to the U.S. House Judiciary Committee's Subcommittee on the Constitution.

"Brad is an outstanding attorney who has provided the highest level of service to his clients," said John G. Calender, managing shareholder of Baker Donelson's Washington, D.C. office. "We are proud to recognize his contributions to the Firm and welcome him as a new shareholder."

Baker, Donelson, Bearman, Caldwell & Berkowitz, PC is one of the 100 largest law firms in the country. Through strategic acquisitions and mergers over the past century, the Firm has grown to include more than 450 attorneys, and public policy and international advisors. Baker Donelson represents clients across the U.S. and abroad from offices in Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, Tennessee, Washington, D.C., and a representative office in Beijing, China.

###