

Partners Phillip Freidan and Manuel L. Dobrinsky of Freidin Dobrinsky Listed in Florida Super Lawyers 2008

MIAMI – Partners Philip Freidan and Manuel L. Dobrinsky of Freidin Dobrinsky, (www.freidindobrinsky.com) a Miami-based personal injury litigation law firm with additional offices in Fort Lauderdale and Fort Myers, have recently been listed in Florida Super Lawyers 2008 in the area of personal injury plaintiff.

Super Lawyers selects the top lawyers in Florida through an extensive process of balloting, blue ribbon panel review and independent research. The goal is to select the top 5 percent of Florida attorneys. Super Lawyers is a listing of outstanding lawyers from more than 70 practice areas who have attained a high degree of peer recognition and professional achievement.

Philip Freidan is managing partner of Freidin Dobrinsky whose areas of practice include auto accidents, medical malpractice, personal injury and wrongful death. He received his undergraduate degree from University of Florida in Gainesville, and received his law degree from American University, Washington College of Law.

Freidin's other honors and committee appointments include being past President of the Florida Justice Association, a statewide personal injury lawyer association of more than 3,500 members. He has served as a member and Chair of a Florida Bar Grievance Committee, as a member and Chair of the Judicial Nominating Commission for Dade County, as a member and Vice Chair of the Florida Supreme Court Judicial Nominating Commission, and as Chair of the Florida Bar Judicial Nominating Procedures Committee.

Manuel L. Dobrinsky is a partner at Freidin Dobrinsky whose areas of practice include consumer class actions, medical malpractice, auto accidents and personal injury. He received his undergraduate degree from Vassar College in Poughkeepsie, New York, and received his law degree from University of Virginia School of Law in Charlottesville, Virginia.

Dobrinsky's other honors and committee appointments include being President-Elect of the Miami-Dade Justice Association, a member of the Million Dollar Advocates Forum, the American Inns of Court and serves on the Ad Hoc Committee on Attorney Admissions, Peer Review and Attorney Grievance for the Federal Courts in the Southern District of Florida. In addition, he serves as an instructor for the National Institute of Trial Advocacy and is fluent in Spanish.

In addition, both partners are included in Martindale-Hubbell's Bar Register of Preeminent Lawyers and are consistently recognized in the annual Florida Trend's Legal Elite and the South Florida Legal Guide as one of Florida's top personal injury attorneys.

###

Miami-based AV Rated, Freidin Dobrinsky was established by managing partner and trial lawyer, Philip Freidin in 1979. The partners at the firm have a long history of landmark cases and protecting victims rights' in the areas of personal injury, medical malpractice, insurance bad faith, automobile accidents, and consumer fraud in State and Federal Courts throughout Florida, including Miami-Dade, Monroe, Broward, Palm Beach, Martin, St. Lucie, Brevard, Orange, Volusia, St. John's, Duval, Leon, Escambia, Alachua, Hillsborough, Pinellas, Polk, Lee and Collier counties, as well as in other states.

Contact: Kristine Bruner of Pristine Public Relations, (561) 866-7923, or via e-mail at kristine@pristinepr.com for Freidin Dobrinsky.