Morrison & Foerster Joins The Partnership for New York City

NEW YORK, NY, February 14, 2007 - Morrison & Foerster today announced that it has become a Partner Company of The Partnership for New York City. The Partnership is a nonprofit membership organization comprised of a select group of two hundred CEOs ("Partners") from New York City's top corporate, investment and entrepreneurial firms. Partners are committed to working closely with government, labor and the nonprofit sector to enhance the economy of the five boroughs and maintain New York City's position as the global center of commerce, finance and innovation. It was co-founded in 1979 by David Rockefeller.

"We are delighted to become a part of such an elite network of individuals and businesses dedicated to the future health and vitality of New York City," said Keith Wetmore, Chair of Morrison & Foerster. "This further signals our firm's commitment to New York and our desire to play an active role in its business and civic life."
