Haynes and Boone Attorneys speak on Latin American Project Finance at US-Mexico Bar Association Annual Meeting in Monterrey, Mexico

MONTERREY, MEX. -- Haynes and Boone, LLP attorneys Larry B. Pascal (Dallas) and Marco Castilla (Houston) addressed the annual meeting of the US-Mexico Bar Association held Oct. 19 at the EGADE campus, speaking on the topic of project finance in Mexico. Mr. Pascal and Mr. Castilla addressed many of the challenges and opportunities presented particularly in the energy sector.

The Haynes and Boone Latin American practice has been recognized as one of the leaders in Latin America by numerous business organizations and publications, including Latin Lawyer. As part of its Latin American practice, Haynes and Boone maintains one of the largest Mexico City practices of any US law firm. Its fifteen Mexico City-based attorneys have a wide range of experience in handling the legal aspects of international business, foreign investment, trade regulation, project finance, infrastructure, litigation and arbitration.

Haynes and Boone, LLP is an international corporate law firm with offices in Texas, Mexico City, Moscow, New York and Washington, D.C., providing a full spectrum of legal services. With more than 450 attorneys, Haynes and Boone is ranked among the largest law firms in the nation by The National Law Journal. The firm has been recognized by Vault.com as one of the "20 Best Law Firms to Work For," by Corporate Board Member Magazine as one of the "Best Corporate Law Firms in America," and has received the Minority Corporate Counsel Association's Thomas L. Sager Award for its commitment to diversity.
