

AMERICAN
CONSTITUTION SOCIETY FOR
LAW AND POLICY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
December 13, 2006

AMERICAN CONSTITUTION SOCIETY WELCOMES NATIONALLY PROMINENT ATTORNEYS TO ITS BOARD OF DIRECTORS

WASHINGTON, DC - The American Constitution Society for Law and Policy (ACS) is pleased to announce that the following national leaders have joined its Board of Directors:

- Faith E. Gay, Partner and Co-Chair, National White Collar and Corporate Investigations Practice, Quinn Emanuel Urquhart Oliver & Hedges, LLP; former Deputy Chief, Civil Rights Division and Special Prosecutions Unit, Office of the United States Attorney, Eastern District of New York.
- Spencer A. Overton, Professor of Law, George Washington University Law School; author, Stealing Democracy: The New Politics of Voter Suppression.
- Robert Raben, Founder, The Raben Group; former Assistant Attorney General, Office of Legislative Affairs, United States Department of Justice; former Counsel, Congressman Barney Frank.

These new board members join current members Frederick M. Baron, Stephen P. Berzon, Amanda Canning, Doris Galindo, Iris Y. González, Pamela Harris, Antonia Hernández, Eric H. Holder, Anne Irwin, Dawn Johnsen, Nathaniel R. Jones, Ronald Klain, Victor A. Kovner, Goodwin A. Liu, William P. Marshall, Robert C. Post, Teresa Wynn Roseborough, Peter J. Rubin, Paul M. Smith, Geoffrey R. Stone, Patricia M. Wald, and Roger Wilkins. Detailed biographies of each board member are available on the ACS website, www.acslaw.org.

"We are pleased to welcome these extraordinary lawyers, and leaders of the legal community, to ACS's Board of Directors," said Paul Smith, Chair of the Board. "Faith, Spencer and Robert are each enormously talented and respected. Their experience and insights will be invaluable to ACS."

"I look forward to working closely with each of these outstanding new board members," said Lisa Brown, ACS Executive Director. "Their leadership and guidance will ensure that ACS continues to expand its reach and impact in the debate over legal and policy issues."

The American Constitution Society for Law and Policy (ACS) is one of the nation's leading progressive legal organizations. Founded in 2001, ACS is a rapidly growing network of lawyers, law students, scholars, judges, policymakers and other concerned individuals. Our mission is to ensure that fundamental principles of human dignity, individual rights and liberties, genuine equality, and access to justice enjoy their rightful, central place in American law. The views of speakers are their own and should not be attributed to ACS. For more information about the organization, which has established student chapters at over 150 law schools around the country and lawyer chapters in over 25 cities, please visit www.acslaw.org.

Contact: Ian Millhiser
202-393-6181

American Constitution Society

email: info@acslaw.org

phone: 2023936181

web: <http://www.acslaw.org>