Esquire Deposition Services Moves Sacramento Office Downtown

Florham Park, N.J. – April 3, 2007 – Esquire Deposition Services, the leading provider of local court reporting and legal support services in the U.S., today announced the relocation of its Sacramento office to 520 Capitol Mall. The move is part of the company's strategic initiative to bring service and support closer to its primary customers in key markets across the U.S. Additional office relocations in Chicago, New York, and Phoenix have recently occurred or are scheduled for completion in the coming weeks.

Esquire Deposition Services offers industry-leading court reporting technologies, including realtime reporting, Internet depositions, video depositions, and video synchronization through over 60 Esquire offices in major legal venues nationwide. Their online scheduling, EsquireConnect, and transcript repository service, EsquireTranscripts, are setting new standards in the court reporting market. Esquire's new office in Sacramento will feature some of the most advanced deposition technology available today.

The company's beautiful new downtown Sacramento office will feature larger conference rooms. A full array of litigation support services are also offered through Esquire's sister-company, Esquire Litigation Solutions. This company delivers fully-integrated litigation support services including electronic discovery, online litigation repository and paper-based discovery services, in addition to a full suite of trial preparation and presentation services.

"Our new office is in the heart of California's capitol city, near the offices of some of the state's leading law firms and government agencies that are a significant portion of our client base," said Tony Vaglica, chief executive officer of The Hobart West Group, parent company of Esquire Deposition Services and Esquire Litigation Solutions. "Our new location offers the industry's premier technology for depositions and will reinforce Esquire's position as the leading service provider legal professionals rely on for their deposition and litigation support needs."

Esquire Deposition Services' new facility is located at 520 Capitol Mall, Suite 250, and is open for business. The office can be reached directly by phone at 916-448-0505 or via email at EsquireSacramento@esquirecom.com.
