

Humphrey Becomes Chair of Faegre & Benson Management Committee

MINNEAPOLIS (Mar. 15, 2010)— Faegre & Benson LLP announced today that Andrew G. Humphrey (partner, Minneapolis) became chair of the firm's nine-member management committee on March 1. First elected to the management committee in 2005, Humphrey succeeds Thomas G. Morgan (partner, Minneapolis), who has served as chair since March 2004.

Prior to becoming chair of the committee, Humphrey served as the firm's diversity partner as well as liaison to the firm's London office.

Humphrey's legal practice focuses primarily in the areas of general corporate counseling, mergers and acquisitions, venture capital financing and securities regulation. He has been consistently recognized as a leading lawyer in Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business and The Best Lawyers in America, as well as other publications.

Humphrey earned his undergraduate degree from Amherst College and his law degree from the University of Chicago Law School, where he was an editor of the Law Review. Prior to joining Faegre & Benson, he clerked for the Hon. Frank Easterbrook of the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit.

Humphrey has been active in the local community, having served on several nonprofit boards and as Mayor of the City of Wayzata, Minnesota.
