

Karl Hanson Joins Fowler White

Jacksonville, FL – Karl B. Hanson, Jr. has joined the law firm of Fowler White Boggs Banker as a shareholder in the firm’s Jacksonville office.

Mr. Hanson practices in the firm’s Real Estate Practice Group. He has extensive experience in acquisitions, dispositions, development, financing, leasing and management of real property. Prior to joining Fowler White Boggs Banker, Mr. Hanson was Of Counsel with Dewey & LeBoeuf, LLP. Mr. Hanson received his B.A. from the University of North Carolina, and his J.D. from the University of Florida. He is AV rated by Martindale Hubbell and is recognized in Best Lawyers in America.

According to John Marino, managing shareholder of Fowler White’s Jacksonville office, “The addition of Mr. Hanson is another significant step in the firm’s implementation of our strategic growth plan. We are truly excited about the depth and breadth that Karl adds to our office and to our firm’s real estate practice. To have such a talented lawyer join our Jacksonville office once again raises the bar for our practice and our office.”

Fowler White Boggs Banker is one of Florida's oldest and largest law firms with more than 200 attorneys in seven offices throughout Florida in Tampa, St. Petersburg, Ft. Myers, Tallahassee, Orlando, Jacksonville and Fort Lauderdale. For more information, visit www.fowlerwhite.com.
