

Plaintiffs Firm Khorrami Pollard & Abir LLP Grows Capabilities and Leadership in Class Action and Mass Tort Litigation

LOS ANGELES, CA – Khorrami Pollard & Abir LLP (KPA), a national law firm representing plaintiffs, has added two associates to support the firm's expertise and resources in class action, mass tort, consumer fraud, labor and employment, catastrophic personal injury and products liability litigation.

Abi Gnanadesigan specializes in class actions, with an emphasis on consumer fraud and wage and hour litigation. She obtained her J.D. from Loyola Law School and her B.A. in political science from the University of Southern California.

Neda Sargordan will focus on mass torts, pharmaceuticals and products liability matters. She earned her J.D. from Chapman University School of Law and degrees in political science and Middle Eastern – North African studies from the University of California, Los Angeles.

"Abi and Neda are dedicated to representing and obtaining justice for consumers," said Shawn Khorrami, founding partner of KPA. "We are very excited to have them both on board."

As one of the largest plaintiff-only firms in California, KPA currently represents tens of thousands of individuals, and handles class actions covering millions of class members, in a variety of cases – including class actions, mass torts, pharmaceuticals, consumer fraud, labor and employment matters, product liability, natural disasters and toxic torts.

In the past 5 years, Khorrami Pollard & Abir LLP has obtained more than $400 million in verdicts and settlements for clients throughout the U.S. from companies including Yahoo!, Coca-Cola, Eli Lilly and Wyeth Pharmaceuticals.

Khorrami Pollard & Abir LLP is dedicated to protecting the rights of individuals against large corporate interests and only accepts cases on a contingency basis – meaning our clients never pay for our services unless we successfully handle their matters.
