

Kramer Levin's Jay Neveloff Honored by Lubavitch Youth Organization

New York, March 28, 2008- Kramer Levin Naftalis & Frankel LLP partner Jay Neveloff, will be honored by the Lubavitch Youth Organization (LYO), a group that attends to educational, communal and humanitarian needs around the world, as part of its Grand National Testimonial Dinner at the Sheraton Hotel New York on Monday, March 31. Mr. Neveloff is being honored for his commitment and dedication to the community. "We are extremely proud of Jay's accomplishments," said Paul Pearlman, Kramer Levin's managing partner. "His leadership and commitment make him an invaluable asset to the New York community and beyond."

As a partner in the firm's top-tier real estate practice, Mr. Neveloff represents clients in all aspects of transactional real estate. Additionally, Mr. Neveloff has received numerous honors, including most recently being recognized as a top lawyer in The New York Post's "Salute to Commercial Real Estate's Movers and Shakers," and is consistently ranked as a preeminent real estate attorney in Chambers USA, Best Lawyers, Super Lawyers and Lawdragon, among other prestigious rankings.

"I am honored to be recognized by such an outstanding organization," said Mr. Neveloff. Founded in 1955 the Lubavitch Youth Organization is involved with people of all ages regardless of race, religion, color or creed. The organization's outreach includes sponsoring youth activities, educational programs and campus activities. Kramer Levin Naftalis & Frankel LLP, with approximately 370 attorneys, is a full-service law firm with offices in New York and Paris. The firm represents clients worldwide, from the Global 1000 to entrepreneurial start-up concerns and individuals. Additional information about the firm is available on the firm's website: www.kramerlevin.com.

###