Lionel Sawyer & Collins

LIONEL SAWYER & COLLINS NAMES THREE NEW SHAREHOLDERS IN 2007

LAS VEGAS, NV – Lionel Sawyer & Collins, Nevada’s largest private law firm, named three new shareholders in 2007.

In the Las Vegas office:

Greg Gemignani is with the Firm’s Gaming and Regulatory Law Department. His practice focuses primarily on intellectual property law, gaming law, technology law, internet law, online gaming law, and online promotions law. Gemignani has represented many clients ranging from the largest casino companies to start-up internet ventures. Prior to engaging in the practice of law, he was a software systems engineer at Electronic Data Systems Corporation.

Linda Bullen is with Lionel Sawyer & Collins’ Litigation Department. A trial attorney who has first-chaired over 75 jury trials in the course of her professional life, Ms. Bullen advises the Firm's clients on complex state and federal environmental matters specializing in hazardous waste, water and air issues. She practiced environmental law with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency as Assistant Regional Counsel, Region V, Chicago, and as a litigation partner in the Chicago-based international firm of McDermott, Will & Emery. Ms. Bullen was the Assistant Attorney General in Minnesota from 1994-1997, where she prosecuted environmental crimes and counseled the Minnesota Department of Natural Resources and the Minnesota Department of Transportation. She is listed in Chambers USA: America’s Leading Lawyers for Business for Environmental Law.

In the Washington, D.C. office:

Brent Heberlee is Lionel Sawyer & Collins' Government Affairs Counsel. He brings nearly a decade of Capitol Hill experience to the Firm. Heberlee's practice includes government relations and lobbying on behalf of the Firm's Nevada-based clients. He was formerly Executive Director of Federal Relations with SBC Communications, Inc., one of the world's largest telecommunications providers. Prior to joining SBC, Heberlee was Legislative Director and Counsel for U.S. Senator Richard Bryan (D-NV), and also served as Legislative Director for U.S. Representative Jim Bilbray (D-NV).

Lionel Sawyer & Collins is Nevada's largest private law firm, with offices in Las Vegas, Reno, and Carson City, Nevada, and in Washington, D.C. For more information about the new shareholders or about the Firm, please visit www.lionelsawyer.com.
