FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Lord, Bissell & Brook LLP Appoints Mitchell J. Popham As Partner-In-Charge Of Los Angeles Office

LOS ANGELES, CA, February 28, 2007 – Mitchell J. Popham, a partner with the law firm of Lord, Bissell & Brook LLP, has been named partner-in-charge of the firm's Los Angeles office.

"Mitch's successful career at Lord, Bissell & Brook and his knowledge of the California legal community makes him an excellent choice for this position. Our LA office has experienced significant growth in the last few years and we expect that to continue under Mitch's leadership," stated Thomas W. Jenkins, partner and chairman of Lord, Bissell & Brook's Executive Committee.

A partner with Lord, Bissell & Brook since 1996, Popham joined the firm directly out of law school in 1986. Over the past 20 years, Popham has been lead counsel to clients from large corporations to smaller business entities and individuals. He focuses his practice on complex business litigation, unfair business practices and competition, class action defense, aviation, insurance coverage and bad faith, commercial disputes, products liability, marine and admiralty, energy and toxic torts.

Popham's professional memberships include the Association of Business Trial Lawyers, Los Angeles County Bar Association, State Bar of California, and State Bar of California Litigation Section.

Founded in 1914, Lord, Bissell & Brook is a full service law firm serving national and international clients from offices in Atlanta, Chicago, London, Los Angeles, New York, Sacramento and Washington, D.C.
