NEW YORK, NY (JANUARY 8, 2007) Olshan Grundman Frome Rosenzweig & Wolosky LLP announced today that Aliza F. Herzberg has joined the firm as a partner and will lead its new Employment Practices Group.

Ms. Herzberg, who joins the firm from Morea Schwartz LLP, will continue to represent companies in litigations and arbitrations relating to employment discrimination and harassment, non-competition and employment agreements.

She will also continue to counsel companies throughout the United States on a variety of issues including their compliance with state and federal statutes and regulations, reductions in force, negotiation of employment and severance agreements and the due diligence associated with mergers and acquisitions.

"Aliza is a significant addition to the firm and a great asset to our clients who are in need of the kind of superior counsel she provides," said Robert L. Frome, a partner. "Our clients require a sophisticated labor and employment legal team, and we have responded to that need."

"I'm excited to work with such client- and goal-oriented attorneys and staff who also place a premium on collegiality," Herzberg said. "Our clients will all benefit from the breadth and depth of talent we have on board."

Joining Herzberg from Morea Schwartz LLP will be attorney Lori Barnea, a second-year associate in the Employment Practices Group.

Herzberg graduated from Fordham Law School and is a member of the bars of the States of New York and New Jersey. Barnea graduated from Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law and is admitted in New York and New Jersey.
