RDB Appoints Sally Gere to New Role of General Counsel; Elects New Management Committee Members

Washington, D.C., March 23, 2007 – Ross, Dixon & Bell, LLP is pleased to announce that the partnership has appointed Elizabeth Sarah Gere as the firm's new General Counsel. Gere is a partner in the Washington, D.C., office and recently completed a term on the firm's Management Committee. She will serve as the firm's internal counsel for all legal matters affecting the firm and will work closely with the Management Committee and David Gische, who was recently reelected for his second four-year term as Managing Partner. Also newly elected to lead the firm are partners Jack Gerstein and Michael Whitton, who join partners Roy Bell, Tom Blair, Eileen Bower, and Robert Pozin on the firm's Management Committee.
