

Sacks Glazier Franklin & Lodise Partner Terrence Franklin Nominated to ABA Council for Real Property, Trust & Estate Law Section

LOS ANGELES, CA - Partner Terrence Franklin with the trusts and estates litigation firm, Sacks Glazier Franklin & Lodise LLP, has been nominated to the American Bar Association Council for the Real Property, Trust & Estate Law section. The Council serves as the governing body of the section and oversees communications, continuing legal education, membership, nominations, government submissions, and more. This is Mr. Franklin's first term serving on the Council, which will run until August 2012.

"It's an honor to be selected to serve among an esteemed group of colleagues," said Mr. Franklin. "I look forward to building upon the previous term's successes and enhancing the section's mission overall.

The ABA Section of Real Property, Trust and Estate Law consists of nearly 30,000 members and is the third largest ABA section.
