

PRESS RELEASE

Winston & Strawn Adds Kevin Lane, Veteran Tax, Trust & Estates Lawyer, to Its Chicago Office

CHICAGO — Winston & Strawn LLP announced today that trusts and estates attorney Kevin C. Lane has joined the firm's Chicago office as partner. Lane brings to the firm over thirteen years of sophisticated estate planning experience gained while serving wealthy families - including several families with a net worth in excess of a billion dollars. He joins Winston from Sonnenschein Nath & Rosenthal LLP.

Lane's practice is focused on multi-generational wealth planning, including the design and implementation of wills, trusts, lifetime gift programs, premarital agreements, and asset protection strategies. He has extensive experience with various types of trusts, family limited partnerships, corporate reorganizations, private annuities, installment sales, and other planning transactions.

"We're very pleased that Kevin has joined Winston & Strawn," said William Doyle, Jr., chair of the firm's trusts and estates practice group. "His demonstrated ability to attract and effectively serve the diverse tax, financial, business and estate planning needs of ultra high net worth clients is a perfect fit for the firm's broad-based tax and estate planning platform."

Lane earned his juris doctorate from DePaul University College of Law. He earned his bachelor's degree in accounting from the University of Notre Dame and is a certified public accountant.

Winston & Strawn LLP is an international commercial law firm with 14 offices in America, Asia and Europe. More information about the firm is available at www.winston.com.